

Lucien Wulsin, Jr.
Insure the Uninsured Project

Lucien Wulsin is the Executive Director of Insure the Uninsured Project and is working on approaches to implement affordable coverage for all uninsured Californians under grants from The California Wellness Foundation, Blue Shield Foundation of California, LA Care Health Plan, Kaiser Permanente, California HealthCare Foundation, California Community Foundation and The California Endowment.

He is the author of California at the Crossroads: Choices for Health Care Reform, a study on California's options to redesign its health care system. He has partnered with numerous health care organizations throughout California on efforts to increase funding, care and coverage for the uninsured.

Mr. Wulsin served as chief consultant to the Special Committee on MediCal Oversight of the California Assembly, where he worked closely with Assemblyman Burt Margolin on reforms in health coverage. Mr. Wulsin worked as a staff attorney and interim Director at the National Health Law Program, as a senior attorney with Greater Boston Legal Services, and as a clinical associate at Harvard Law School.

Mr. Wulsin is a member of the bar in California and Massachusetts, a graduate of the University of Virginia Law School and of Trinity College.
